Shakeup Plan May Bring New Superior Court to Torrance

Formation of nine court districts in the County, which might include Torrance as headquarters for one of them, was approved by the Board of Supervisors Tuesday.

According to the plan, eight branch districts in addition to one in the Los Angeles civic center, would be created.

According to a map of the district, Torrance might be the site for the court which would serve the area between the Baldwin and Palos Verdes hills, the ocean and Alameda Blvd.

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn's motion to abolish municipal courts, and create an enlarged superior court system was also approved.

Both measures will be submitted to the State Legislature which will have to approve the plan.

Presently all Torrance felony cases are tried in Superior Court in Inglewood, which has been designated the temporary headquarters for this area.
